W.P.(Crl) NO. 256 OF 2007-S

Dated 12th November, 2007.

JUDGMENT

Balakrishnan Nair, J.

The petitioner has approached this Court, alleging that the 1st respondent has illegally detained his daughter Miss Anju Vijayan. So, praying to release her from the illegal detention of the 1st respondent, this petition for issuing a writ of habeas corpus is filed. This Court issued notice to the respondents on 31.10.2007. Today, the 1st respondent is present in Court along with the detenu Miss Anju Vijayan. The 4th respondent also appeared in person before this Court. He has submitted that the 1st respondent and the alleged detenu have got married. A Marriage Certificate was also produced by him through his counsel. It is submitted by him that the Marriage Certificate is a genuine and valid certificate.

2. We questioned the alleged detenu. She is a Post-graduate student. She submitted that she has married the 1st respondent on her own will. She is not being detained by any one. She is a free person. In view of the above submissions, the writ petition fails and it is accordingly dismissed.
